

BENEFICIAL EFFECT ON PEOPLE IN COMA, SLEEPING OR UNDER ANAESTHETIC EFFECT WITH POSITIVE SUGGESTIONS

1. When we were in Tenerife (Canary Islands, Spain) in February 1993 Paduni my niece after a massive heart attack was in a deep coma. Now that she is back at home, she remembers most of the moments when although she could not talk, but she could hear; the nurses joking and smoking in the ambulance, commenting that the patient Paduni was almost dead and there is nothing which could be done about her, (a very dangerous practice as this can actually cause death.).

2. She also remembers the Doctors and the nurses some of whose behaviour was absolutely callous, as they believed that she was in coma, and was unable to hear anything, yet she remembers most of the conversations, although unable to express herself or speak.

3. This is why when I visited her with her parents at the intensive care unit, where she was in deep sleep or in coma, I kept repeating that she is OK and improving. That I believe was one of the main reasons that pulled her through, when the doctors had repeatedly said that there were moments she was clinically dead, and there was no hope of her survival!. Dr. Horacio Perez, from the Hospital "Nuestra Señora de la Candelaria" of Tenerife, was amazing with her improvement and she continue working intensively at her shop

4. I have attended several people where I use the positive language with great results and I remember one of the first cases 30 years ago when Mr. HKM was operated in Bombay. As soon as he came out of the operating theatre, still under the effect of anaesthetics, his wife and sister were commenting about his weak habits, and how frequently he becomes sick, and how much longer he takes to recover etc. I stopped them talking against the patient, and even though he could not hear, I kept whispering into his ear "everything has been Ok, everything has turned out well, and you will heal and be able to go home by Friday". To the surprise of the doctor, who had forecast his departure by next week at the earliest, he was able to discharge him on Friday, as Mr HKM did recover much quicker than expected in spite of his age and being prone to so many diseases in the past.

5. In actual accidents or even otherwise patients can have a negative effect even though they appear to be in coma or deep anaesthesia. I do not allow any one to talk negatively and the onlookers who make gratuitous negative comments are asked to keep quiet and to move on immediately, and my positive remarks have spectacular effects.

6. Then, I have experimented with children who are averse to go to school every day. I whisper to them when they are deep asleep (or if it could be under deep anaesthesia, better still): "continue sleeping, you are a big boy now, no one will hurt you in school now, if any one bothers you, the teacher has instructions to protect you, you enjoy going to school, you will enjoy going to school and learn more and more". Here again the children do start enjoying and do go to school without the previous problems.

7. Children who were having difficulty in learning languages, because they had missed many classes, or otherwise, were recommended to listen to foreign language tapes at night during deep sleep and read the same lessons during the day, and not only did they improve their language, (or other lessons) but even the accent was good.

8. Similarly couples can make positive suggestions to their partners at night during deep sleep with practical and positive results.

9. It is therefore recommended that all the surgeons, doctors and healers not to talk negatively against the patients even when they feel that the patient can not hear anything, and not to use the words scalpel and other instruments by name when operating, but just by numbers or code name which will not frighten the patients, and keep whispering that everything has worked out well, and he or she will recover and heal quickly.

10. I have also seen that using the magnets after the operation on the affected parts takes away their pain almost immediately, and the healing takes place in less than half the normal time.

11. MAGNETS ARE AVAILABLE FROM THE ADDRESSES BELOW IN REASONABLE QUANTITIES FREE OF CHARGE, as being a trustee of a foundation, we do not sell anything, but give free what we can.

12. Heart patients have used the south pole of the magnet at the heart, and together with deep breathing and a raw vegetables and fruit diet has helped them to clean their artery, giving them immediate relief and many times they are able to avoid costly and possible risky surgical operations (see Article 3, "Use Of Magnets For Therapeutic Purposes"; and 14, "Bypass The Bypass"; 21 to help with Asthma, colds and coughs, and Article 24 for elimination of pains and aches).

13. Extracts from the book Silva Mind Control by Jose Silva

I. During the course of her pregnancy, this lady had developed an excellent rapport with her obstetrician. Between the two there was friendship and confidence. Came time for her delivery and she went routinely under general anaesthesia and gave birth to a healthy baby. Later, when her physician visited her in the hospital room, she was strangely distant, even hostile towards him. Neither she nor her physician could account for her changed attitude, and both were eager to find some explanation for it.

They decided to try, through hypnosis, to uncover some hidden memory that might explain her sudden change.

Under hypnosis she was led through time regression, from her most recent experience with her physician back to earlier ones. They did not have far to go. In a deep trance, instead of skipping over the period when she was "Unconscious" in the delivery room, she remembered everything the doctor and nurses had said. What they said in presence of the anaesthetised patient was at times clinically detached, at other times humorous, and at other times they expressed annoyance at the slow progress of her delivery. She was a thing, not a person, her feelings were not considered. After all she was unconscious, wasn't she?

II. Dr. Emile Coué's famous sentence "Day by Day, in every way, I am getting better and better". These words have cured thousands of persons of grimly serious illness! I regard Dr. Coué with awe and gratitude for I have learnt priceless lessons from his book "Self-Mastery through Auto suggestion" (Published by Sun Books, Sun Publishing Company, PO Box 5588, Santa Fe, New Mexico 87502-5588, U.S.A.)

Dr. Coué was a chemist for almost thirty years in Troyes, France, where he was born. After studying and experimenting with hypnosis, he developed psychotherapy of his own, based on autosuggestion. In 1910 he opened a free clinic in Nancy, where he treated thousands of patients, some with rheumatism, severe headaches, asthma, paralysis of a limb, others with stammering, tubercular sores, fibrous sores, fibrous tumours, and ulcers, and amazing variety of afflictions.

He never cured anyone, he said; He taught them to cure themselves. There is no doubt that the cures occurred- they are well documented.

III A. Words are astonishingly powerful even at levels of mind far deeper than we use in mind control. A nurse-anaesthetist in Oklahoma, Mrs. Jean Mabrey, puts this knowledge to use to help her patients. As soon as they are "Under" -in deep anaesthesia- she whispers in their ears instructions that can speed their recovery, in some cases save their lives!

During one operation, when profound bleeding would normally be expected, the surgeon was amazed: There was only a trickle. Mrs. Mabrey had whispered, "Tell your body not to bleed" She did this before the first incision, then about every ten minutes during the operation.

III B. During another operation she whispered, "when you awake you will feel that every one in your life loves you and you love yourself" The patient was causing her surgeon special concern. She was a tense, complaining woman to whom every pain was ominous-an attitude that could slow down her recovery. Later she awakened from the anaesthetic, there was a new expression on her face, and three months later her surgeon told Mrs. Mabrey that this one-anxious patient was "transformed". She had become relaxed and optimistic and quickly recovered from her operation"

Some more examples:

14. When I was a little boy 50 years ago, in trying to board the full bus in Karachi, Pakistan, I fell down twice but got up and pushed and was in, when I arrived at destination and looked down that I saw the bruises and bleeding, instant pain was felt and I fainted. No comments.

15. Dr. Deepak Chopra MD who taught at Tufts & Boston University, and a panel member of Alternative Medicine in United States, author of Perfect Health, Quantum Healing and the latest book Ageless Body, Timeless Mind, when speaking at London in September 93 has reported to have said that 30% of the diseases are discovered or (created in my opinion) after people living in bliss are informed on general examination that they suffer from this or that disease. In case of doubt the Mind wins.

16. Many years ago an X-Ray of a young lady in Las Palmas showed brittle bones, and she was advised complete rest without any movements and went through agonising pains without any relief in spite of the best medical treatment, but when informed a few months later that there was a swap of x-ray, and her real x-ray showed healthy and strong bones, she got up almost immediately and her pains disappeared.

17. My friend Dr V. in Jaipur, India to help the poor mother not to waste her money, without assigning any reasons asked her to take her son with advanced irreversible cancer, back to the village for rest, and after a few months the grateful lady on her next visit to town told the amazed doctors that thanks to their loving treatment her son was cured (both believed that he had been cured, and he was being discharged). The mind worked positively.

18. Dr. V. informed me all his children excepting one were very sharp, and on my advice kept repeating when his son was sleeping and awake "he is getting better and sharper". On my next trip they told me that his son had changed radically and was even better than his brothers were.

19. My daughter phoned my wife from London at Bombay in August 93, asked her How are you? I dreamt you were sick, and my wife receiving those words from a loved one and subconsciously believing those to be true actually developed intensive sickness for the next few days.

20. Earlier in London my wife was going through agonising pains, saying she had a gut feeling, that something drastic was wrong as her pains this time were different and more severe, and two of my friends, general physicians with different treatments were of no avail.

21. However when the expensive Harley Street specialist examined her thoroughly and dictamined that she had nothing wrong internally and was OK, all her pains disappeared and she was up in no time.

22. CONCLUSIONS: There is no doubt in my mind that the diseases are generated by the Brain, according to the impressions or symptoms which the brain receives as stored in the mind, and based on those impressions instructs the body to create the disease, but we can talk to the mind under above created conditions (See Heading) and eliminate the negative situation, so that the mind will only transmit to the brain positive impressions, and the brain will therefore instruct the body in future to Heal, create Health, Happiness, Peace, Prosperity and Long Life.
